

Creepy Crawlies by Daniel McFarlane

What does the title mean?

The title refers to insects and bugs. We can hear this in the music through the light, staccato quavers as well as the 'creepy' use of the harmonic minor scale.

What key is this in?

C minor

Notation:

Moderato - play at a moderate tempo/speed

C - common time which is 4/4 - simple quadruple - 4 crotchet beats in a bar

Repeat sign - repeat the section

Staccato - short and detached

Acciaccatura - short quick notes before the main note

8va - play one octave higher than written mp - mezzo piano - moderately soft

Crescendo - gradually getting louder

f - forte - loud

Slur - play the notes legato (smooth and well-connected)

LH - left hand

RH - right hand

p - piano - soft

> - accent - play the note loudly (marcato/marked accent)

Also need to know the names of all the notes and types of notes (eg crotchet = 1 beat)
